20th WORLD SENIOR KARATE CHAMPIONSHIPS
27-31. OCTOBER 2010. BELGRADE

Snežana Samardžić - Marković, Minister of Youth and Sport of the Republic of Serbia
President of the Organizing Committee

Dear guests,
Dear athletes,
Friends of karate,

On behalf of the Organizing Committee, it's my great pleasure to welcome all participants of the 20th anniversary of World Karate Championship for seniors.

Serbia and Belgrade again host a major sporting event such as this Championship. Reassemble the whole world in one place; it is a great honor and responsibility for our country.

Accepting the organization of this tournament we wanted to show everyone how karate is positive, mass and popular sport.

We hope that all participants and guests will see and feel the energy, knowledge and hospitality of our people and therefore will constantly return to compete. This event is more than the competition itself. It will be a combination of friendship, art and karate.

I am convinced that Serbia and Belgrade, as many times before, are ready to justify the trust.

I wish that this event, for all participants and for the world karate sport, be seen as wordless dialogue in the spirit of sport philosophy. Karate speaks all languages and connects all people and generations, regardless of race, sex, religion and political status.

Let the best win!

We sincerely welcome you!

20th WORLD SENIOR KARATE CHAMPIONSHIPS
27-31. OCTOBER 2010. BELGRADE

Antonio Espinos, WKF President

Greeting Belgrade

The entire WKF has been waiting for a long time, with great expectation and excitement, the arrival of big days for karate in Belgrade. These wishes are also and without any doubt shared not only by the Serbian Karate Federation but also by all those that in one way or another take part in the organisation of these twentieth World Karate Championships, exactly forty years after the foundation of the World Karate Federation in 1970.

In the coordination visit that the WKF made to Belgrade one year before the event, we have seen the strong institutional support that the Serbian Federation has been able to agglutinate, as well as the superb facilities that will be offered to the many delegations of the 5 continents. Between them, we were pleasantly surprised by the Belgrade Arena, a splendid stadium that will make possible the celebration of a high standard Championships, and also by the outstanding conditions of the selected hotels.

Finally, I want to thank the President of the Serbian Karate Federation and the whole organizing team for their leadership, their hard work and their commitment to overcome all difficulties and be in condition to make this huge contribution to the World of Sport, and I also want to congratulate them for their success in having chosen a working team fully capable to face the successful organisation of this great world event.

WELCOME TO BELGRADE

Belgrade, just like other European cities, has its old and new face, its mementos of the past and the joys of youth. But what makes cities, and indeed the people different here is their soul and appearance, their charm and openness make them special. The beauty of our town is in the smile of its people, their spontaneity and warmth, a friendly and extended hand most sincerely saying – Come again!

Belgrade is a special town – an endless story never reaching the epilogue because of its long, rich and, above all, turbulent history which has left its marks, but also a unique soul created in the richness of differences and spiritual traces. In addition to Athens, Belgrade is one of the oldest European cities, and the culture of Vinča is one of the oldest cultures of the continent.

The Belgrade time machine would bring us straight to the heart of the Belgrade Fortress, the place which seems to have been the cornerstone of all events happening in the town's life – historical, political, social, cultural ... and today it is a popular place for walks and art gatherings. This is how it has been for centuries, and this is how it is today.

Famous Prince Mihailova Street is close to the Belgrade Fortress and is the town's artery. You may measure it either in meters or in the people you meet, the favorite places and long-standing institutions. Never deserted people passing or walking, street performers, and ladies window-shopping together are just a part of its everyday face. It was first acknowledged as a street centuries ago, and it developed together with Belgrade. Many of its restaurants, hotels and shops are mentioned in the town's chronicles, and there are always new noteworthy places yet to be recorded. The street has both common popular places as well as those each of us feels to be special. The first group is in the city map; the places belonging to the second group are engraved in the hearts of the people living in Belgrade.

The street will lead you to Trg Republike, the square hosting the town's most famous monument – Prince Mihailo. The square is bordered by two major cultural institutions – the National Museum and National Theatre.

Just a few hundred meters from the town's central square, its lively and eventful mood fades away. If you feel like seeing a relaxed Belgrade, the best choice is to go to Skadarlija, the town's bohemian quarter, the street of cafés and restaurants, a popular place enjoyed by the people of Belgrade and their guests. Time seems to have stopped here, and the hasty everyday life is won over by Skadarlija's relaxed setting and the aged spirit of the town living another life surrounded by old houses. If you miss going to Skadarlija and its atmosphere, you can hardly feel the genuine soul of the town and the people living in it. It is a street of the past and nostalgia is felt for foregone times, and it has the quality of stopped time for us and for our sake. Depending on the occasion and taste, on your mood and the time of day, you may choose the environment and menu in one among many of Skadarlija's restaurants. One thing will never vary: a recognizable homemade taste.

And when you feel like escaping from the city clamor and everyday pressures, there is no need to go far. At no more than 4 km from central Belgrade, you will find Ada Ciganlija, the most popular resort for the people of Belgrade and their guests. Its huge green areas, with the lake in the middle, belong to the full list of qualities any town should have to meet the needs of its people. And Belgrade has it. The town with Belgrade's ambitions would not gain much from its colorful streets and squares if it had not a special and peaceful retreat as Ada Ciganlija.

The time spent in these or many other places will make you realize that you have become attached to Belgrade in a special way. Who knows exactly when this extraordinary chemistry happens to spread, but we know that Belgrade is staying with you, and even when you are packing and intend to leave, you will never leave for good. There are always people, towns and places we are saying GOODBYE to, but what we are actually telling them is SEE YOU SOON.

SPORT VENUE - BEOGRADSKA ARENA

The strategic concept of the investor – city authorities, was that the “Belgrade Arena” becomes a key factor in enriching the total tourist offer of Belgrade, Serbia’s Capital, by continuously attracting large audiences to its contents and events. The geographical position of Belgrade has always placed it into the centre of all cultural and sports events in this part of Europe. As such, it serves perfectly for attracting the audience from all the surrounding countries, on the one hand, and presents a challenge for the most prominent artists and athletes to gather together at one single place the largest number of their fans, on the other hand.

The hall, consisting of six levels and boasts a well-structured local network. Everybody agreed that, after the model of US arenas of this type, Belgrade obtained a fantastic facility that opens up endless possibilities and that belongs among the very best of the world arenas. It is most often included among the three most beautiful halls in Europe: San Giorgio in Barcelona, Oaku in Athens, and Globen in Stockholm.

Those who have seen the sports hall in Prague say that it is the only match for the Arena in respect of its modern appearance, state-of-art equipment, excellent architectural solution, and, nowadays unavoidable, VIP boxes with all the elements that accompany a special form of luxury that is implicit to the today’s sports, entertainment and show business. When it comes to sports, Belgrade now has a facility of which it can be proud.

About “Belgrade Arena”

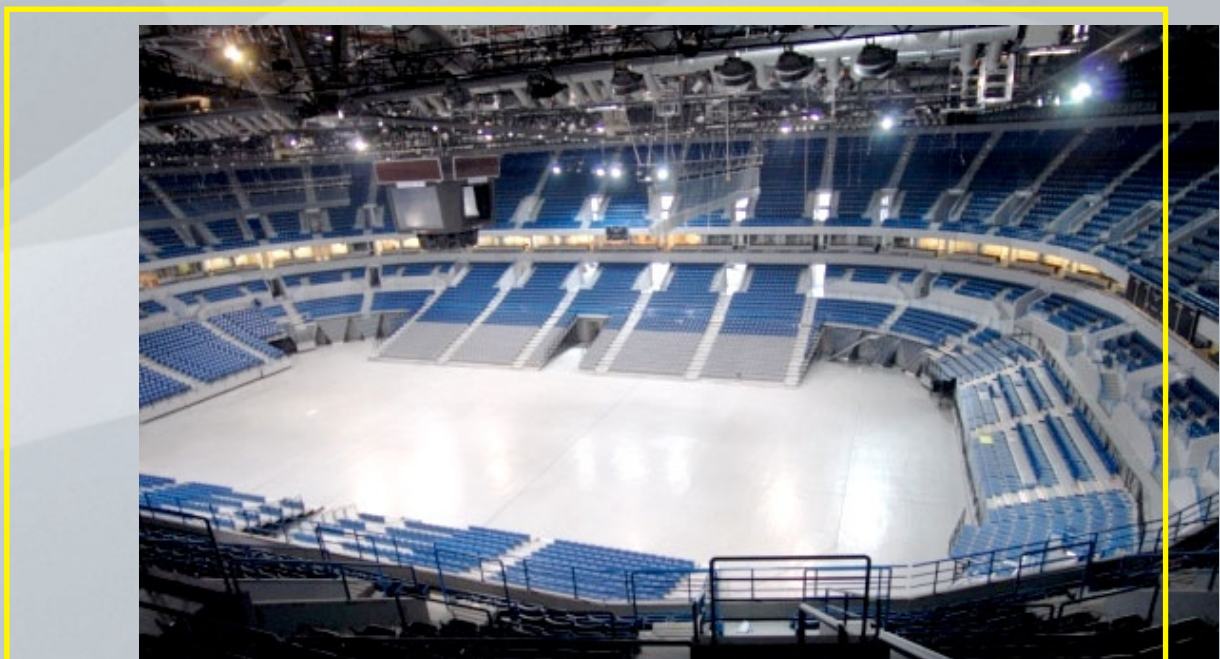

“Belgrade Arena” became Belgrade’s trademark and one of the new symbols of the Serbian capital, as well as the place of interest for the visitors to our capital and the country. It is a facility that fully meets the latest standards and, together with the “Prague Arena”, it is at the highest technological level in Europe. This extraordinary building was the work of architect Vlada Slavica, and the investor was the Belgrade City Assembly Secretariat for Sports and Youth.

The Belgrade Arena complex consists of three units: a large hall, a small hall, and the parking space.

The large hall covers the area of 48 000 m² and has six levels, the seating capacity of 20 000 - 25 000, depending on the event to be held.

The small hall covers the area of 2 275 m² on two levels; the over-all dimensions of the hall are 30 x 60m and it serves as the ancillary facility that is used for athletes’ preparation and training. It was designed as the facility where the athletes can warm up and then, through the underground pedestrian walkway, under the road on the South, go to the large hall. The field in the small hall is 29.20m x 43.70m and the height of the hall is 10m. It is possible to divide it into two basketball fields (with wall mounted basketball hoops). With all its ancillary facilities (4 dressing-rooms, café bar, gym, reception desk, and 1 cargo lift connecting these two levels), it can operate as a completely independent unit.

Since its official start in 2007 "Belgrade Arena" hosted most respectable concerts, family shows and sport events, including Eurovision Song Contest, Universiade, Davis Cup and Fed Cup, World Basketball League, Volleyball World League, Disney On Ice, Night Of The Jumps, Job Fair, European Arena's congress ...
